Every human being is born with a purpose - he has to fulfill something he has to deliver a message - he has to do a task
You are not here by chance - that you are here has a definite meaning
You are fulfilling a purpose - the whole wants to do something through you

Osho

Live your truth - do not be cowardly - live your visions of love - live your destiny - now!
Visions are the waves of life that carry you into new areas and dimensions of your consciousness
They challenge you totally - your brave heart loves to learn new and unknown - be grateful for that!
